Short Trails in Grand Teton National Park

Backcountry Regulations

- No pets, firearms, bicycles, or vehicles are allowed on trails.
- Overnight camping and mountaineering require a free permit; off-trail use requires registration.
- Hike on established trails to prevent erosion.
- Horses have the right-of-way. Step off the trail and remain quiet while horses pass.
- Respect wildlife: observe and photograph from a safe distance. Do not approach or feed any animals.
- Carry out all your garbage.

For your safety

- Grand Teton is bear country. Where dense vegetation limits visibility, make noise so that you do not startle a bear.
- Carry drinking water and raingear.
- High elevation may cause breathing difficulties.
- Check with a ranger for up-to-date information on trail conditions.
